

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

February 23, 1999 LB 366, 379

the bill, Section 71-147 has been amended to cite the new sections, creating the license of Provisionally Licensed Psychologist. When the bill was drafted a reference was added to the list of violations in that section, to one of the new sections in the bill. In adding to the list the word "or" was mistakenly stricken, and the word "and" replaces it. This causes a whole new, unintended meaning for the current statute. AM0405 strikes the new "and", and replaces it with the former "or". Without this amendment, a professional license could not be denied, revoked or suspended, unless the applicant or licensee was guilty of all the listed offenses. Under this amendment, the applicant of license may be found guilty of any one of the listed violations. The E & R attorney was the one that found this and asked if it was intentional, and it wasn't, and, because it made substantive changes in the meaning, the E & R attorney believed that I should introduce this as a floor amendment. Thank you, Mr. President.
